Vote Recorded In Committee Action

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 19.—
Advocates of legalized beer went down to defeat again today when the senate committee on manufactures voted to report unfavorably the Bingham bill for 4 per cent brew. The vote was 7 to 4.

Party lines were again split, four Republicans and three Democrats voting against the measure and three Republicans and one Democrat favoring it.

Those against the bill were Mc-Nary (R) of Oregon, Goldsborough
(R) of Maryland, Hatfield (R) of West Virginia, Cutting (R) of New Mexico, Smith (D) of South Carolina, Sheppard (D) of Texas, and Coston (D) of Colorado.

Those for it were Metcalf (R) of Rhode Island, LaFollette (R) of Wisconsin, Barbour (R) of New Jersey, and Bulkley (D) of Ohio.

Two other members of the committee, Wheeler (D) of Montana, and Long (D) of Louisiana, had been expected to attend and vote for the beer bill but were absent.

BOY IS INJURED ROLLER SKATING

While roller skating near his home on Sheridan avenue Monday afternoon, Jack, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thoman, sustained severe injuries.

The lad tripped and fell on a sharp stick, which penetrated his body. He was removed to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where he was given surgical attention and today had improved to such an extent that he was able to be removed to his home. He will be confined to bed for several weeks, however, as a result of the accident.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Today closes a period of campaigning for new memberships in New Castle's largest and most far-reaching organization for women and girls—the Y. W. C. A. Its influence reaches thousands of local women in all walks of life. It deserves the support of the women of the community and that support is best demonstrated by taking out a membership.

Primary election day is one week from today. State and national officials are to be nominated.

TO START WORK ON NEW BRIDGE

Equipment Arriving For New Willow Grove
Bridge Erection

Engineers At Work Laying Out Location Of New
Span

County Commissioner P. O.
Elder reported this morning that a steam shovel and other equipment has arrived for the Willow Grove bridge, and is now being unloaded from the cars.

A corps of state engineers are also at work today, making surveys and setting stakes for the approaches to the bridge.

Contract for the erection of the bridge was let several days ago to the Cleveland firm which presented the low bid at the time that the bids were opened.

There was some doubt as to when the erection of the bridge would actually start, but the arrival of the equipment is evidence that the contracting company is going ahead with the bridge at once.

Erection of the new bridge will not interfere with travel over the old structure as the new one is to be on a different location. In the erection of the new bridge curves will be eliminated.

Darrow To Call Noted Alienists In Massie Case

Veteran Attorney Will Lay Foundation For Defense
As Insanity

LIEUT. MASSIE IS BEING EXAMINED

Prosecutor John Kelley Fails To Shake Story Told By Naval Men

By JAMES ADAM

HONOLULU, T. H., April 19.—
The innermost workings of Lieut.
Thomas H. Massie's mind when the pistol he held fired the shot that killed Joseph Kahahawai and drew international attention to conditions in this tropical city will be laid bare today before a polyt jury.

Chief Defense Counsel Clarence
Darrow informed International News Service that he will summon his two noted mainland psychiatrists, Dr.
Edward Huntington Williams and Dr. Thomas J. Orison, to lay the foundations for a general defense of insanity.

"Mental Blank."
Lieut. Massie is on trial accused of the second degree murder of Kahahawai, along with his aristocratic mother-in-law, Mrs. Grace Hubbard Fortescue, and two naval enlisted men, Albert S. Jones and E. J. Lord.
The "mental blank" that engulfed Lieut. Massie after Kahahawai confessed to an attack on his wife, along with four other half-castes, will be explained today by the two alienists, after minor defense witnesses have been heard, Darrow said.

For nearly two weeks Drs. Williams and Orison have had Lieut.
Massie under daily observation, Darrow admitted, and they also have given him mental examinations.

Testimony Unshaken.
Just what conclusions they have reached the astute Darrow declined to reveal, but it was understood they are prepared to testify that hysteria and emotional insanity seized the officer when Kahahawai admitted the assault.

For two hours Prosecutor John C.
Kelley hammered at Lieut. Massie, endeavoring both to shake his story is shielding the real slayer—and to dispute the defense of insanity, but the young officer survived the questioning with his testimony unshaken.

Tax payments for the first three and one-half months of 1932 exceeded the tax payments for the same period of 1931, according to attaches of the city treasury.

TRENTON, N. J., April 19.— Heart-broken because thru many slowly dragging days neither he nor his emissaries succeeded in re-establishing contact with the kidnapers of his infant son, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh today once again pleaded to be freed of any surveillance in his efforts to rescue his baby.

Through Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, head of the New Jersey state police, Lindbergh for the second time in a week made it plain he found his attempts to reach the abductors or their agents impeded by the press representatives, who followed all moves in the case.

His appeal came after 24 hours of activities in the pursuit of the stolen baby yielded but scant results. The searching of the steamer Europa, which docked in New York from trace of the baby. An anonymous

Church Sexton Dies Suddenly

Central Presbyterian Church
Sexton Drops Dead In Church Monday

HEART TROUBLE APPARENT CAUSE

George W. Richard, sexton of the Central Presbyterian church, on the public square, while engaged in the performance of his duties Tuesday afternoon, was overcome by a sudden heart attack and was dead when medical assistance arrived.

He had apparently been in his usual health and his death comes as a shock to his many friends and the members of the congregation of the Central Presbyterian church, where he had been sexton for the past six years.

Miss Blanche Bright, a member of the church had just stepped into the church shortly after 3 o'clock for the purpose of discussing arrangements for a meeting to be held last night.

Falls Off Bench.
She found Mr. Richard in the basement of the church just as he came from the boilerroom, where he had been fixing the fire. He sat down on a bench while discussing the arrangements and suddenly fell over on his face.

Miss Bright believing that he had suffered a stroke, called M. L. Ailey, an official of the church and then the police. Officer Ralph Criswell hurried to the scene, while Sergeant J. P. Steiner called and secured a doctor. The latter on his arrival shortly after the officer pronounced Mr. Richard dead.

Coroner Orville Potter was called and found death due to a sudden heart attack. The body was removed to the Jos. S. Rice Company funeral home. Death occurred about 3:30 p. m.

Mr. Richard was born October 8,
1881, the son of David N. and Clara Davis Richard. He was widely known and highly respected throughout the city. He was a member of the Central Presbyterian church and the New Castle Volunteer Fire Police.

CONGRESS NOT TO DELAY POST OFFICE BUILDING

Senate Retains Appropriations For Building Post Offices

See No Delay In Erection Of New Structure In New Castle

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent Of
The New Castle News

WASHINGTON, April 19.—
Any possible delay in the proposed New Castle post office through congressional economy was made remote by a vote in the late last evening. The senate voted to reduce the Treasury-Post Office Departments appropriation by ten per cent, but added the specific provision that the cut should not apply to building funds.

Some days ago, Secretary Mills reported that a general ten per cent slash in the Treasury-Post Office appropriation bill would mean indefinite postponement of about 250 new Federal buildings including the New Castle post office.

The senate vote of yesterday however, clearly removes the threat of a reduction in building funds and it is the consensus of opinion on Capitol Hill that this provision will be acceptable to the House.

Commencement of the New Castle post office this summer now seems virtually assured.

Plan To Expose Short-Sellers To Glare Of Public

WASHINGTON, April 19.—A host of apparently fictitious names were included in the list of 14,000 short-sellers studied today by the senate banking and currency committee in its search for bear-riders who smashed prices on the New York Stock Exchange.

A member of the committee, who read a portion of the list, declared it was apparent on the surface that thousands of short-sellers had maintained "dummy accounts." He insisted the committee subpoena all the brokers, who handled these accounts, to learn the real identity of the short-sellers.

May Be Embarrassing.
Reports persisted that members of the cabinet, high Republican and Democratic officials, and members of congress had engaged in short-selling since the crash of October, 1929. One senator said he heard that a cabinet member dealt on the

Ready To Pay For Post Office Site On Diamond

To Local Owners In Next Few Days

MONEY IS NOW IN ATTORNEY'S HANDS

Total Of Approximately $190,000 Being Paid
For Site

Checks for approximately $190,000 in payment of the five parcels of ground on the Diamond, to be occupied by the new United States Post Office building are now in the hands of W. J. Aiken, assistant Federal District Attorney, in Pittsburgh, it was learned today by M. L. Ailey, local attorney who has been in charge of the negotiations for the Treasury Department here.

The site of the new post office structure fronts Washington street on the southwest corner of the Diamond, and is bounded on the east by Jefferson street, on the south by Market alley and on the west by Diamond alley.

Approval of the payment of these certificates of settlement for the site was made by the treasury department in Washington just a week ago but there has been some little delay in getting the certificates to the district attorney's office in Pittsburgh apparently.

Formally Take Site Over.
As soon as the deeds are recorded and all preliminaries required by the government are complied with, the money will be placed in the hands of the owners. This should be completed within a few days at the most, when the site will be formally taken over by the government.

Beginning Monday, April 18, the Shenango plant of the American the plant has been working. This brings the plant to about 75 per cent capacity.

Orders for tin plate have shown an increase in the past two weeks and the local plant benefits mate-

PREMIER MacDONALD'S REGIME NEAR END

Hear MacDonald May Soon Retire

Prime Minister Of England May Soon Announce His Political Retirement

Fast Diminishing Eye-Sight May Force MacDonald To Give Up Executive Post

(International News Service)
LONDON, April 19.—Early retirement of Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald from active political life was predicted by politicians of all parties today on the heels of an official announcement that he had suffered a relapse in the eye ailment which recently necessitated a delicate operation.

Intimates of the prime minister admitted that the state of his eyes will prevent him from doing any large amount of documentary reading in the future. As such work is regarded as essential in the post of premier, his resignation is expected to follow in due course.

The operation was performed some weeks ago to correct "gradually diminishing vision" of the left eye. The operation was pronounced a success, and official announcement of the relapse came as a surprise.

MacDonald has had a difficult task reconciling the new tariff with the free-trade policies of Viscount Snowden, still a powerful figure in government affairs despite his elevation to the peerage, and the premier also has found the Liberals particularly troublesome.

These factors have combined to make it extremely difficult for MacDonald to work out an agreement between his ministers on the tariff provisions of the new budget.

short side of the market to protect his investments against terrific declines. The committee's special counsel reported that "no one who has seen the records can truly say they include the name of any cabinet officer." It was learned that the experts had copied only several of the 14,000 names, so cabinet officers might be among the names not yet listed.

To Make Names Public.
"We probably will make public the names of short-sellers with accounts of short sales in excess of 1,000 shares," said Senator Watson (R.) of Indiana.

"We are going to the bottom of this short-selling business. We struck a little pay dirt in the last thirty minutes Monday."

He referred to the testimony given by Richard Whitney, president of the New York Stock Exchange, concerning the large amount of short sales in the last week of September, 1931, when prices broke badly. The committee's new attorney, William A. Gray of Philadelphia, brought out that short-sales, covered in the same day, rose from 12,000 shares on Saturday, September 26 to 85,000 on September 28 and to 156,000 on September 29. These figures did not include short sales uncovered until a later day.

Old Time Song Service Wednesday

The regular Wednesday evening church service in the First Christian church on the square will be of an unusual character this week, inasmuch as the pastor, Dr. G. S. Bennett, will have an old-time song service.

Old, familiar hymns will be sung by the congregation, with Dr. Bennett giving a brief history of the author's life and the circumstances under which the hymns were written.

In addition to the singing by the congregation, there will also be special numbers by the quartet: Mrs. Thelma Schenk, Miss Rebecca Garvin, Sam Lewis and Richard E. Johns, with Mrs. Mary Virginia Patterson at the piano.

thusiasm on the platform as speech-making tours entered the home stretch.

Pinchot Is Watched
What cudgel Gov. Gifford Pinchot will take up in the sprinting distance has been a matter of speculation for days. Credited even by his foes with being a field general in politics of no mean ability the Governor was under the watchful gaze of the state organization, which itself was reported prepared to lay down another ace of two of its own.

The leader of the independent wing today had thus far failed to register any action to the latest maneuver credited to the regular organization. This was the charge that Governor Pinchot had sponsored the wet candidacy of William S. Adams, Harrisburg hotelman, for the purpose of diverting anti-prohibition votes from Senator James J. Davis.

Hit Campaign Funds
Reports in circulation at the Capital indicated that the organization planned to bare its parting flings on the campaign fund collections of the Governor among state employees.

While the executive and his ticket stamped on home grounds yesterday and last night, the slate headed by Senator Davis hurled counter charges along northeastern trails recently traversed by the independents.

Former Lieut. Gov. Arthur James, now a candidate for the Superior Court, led the oratorical firing squad, charging Governor Pinchot with "treachery" to Pennsylvania and with attempting to undermine the President of the United States through speech-making beyond the bounds of the commonwealth. The Governor, meanwhile, hammered away at the utilities and Gen. Smedley D. Butler continued to aim his heavier blasts at the Philadelphia machine.

Butler Scores Gangs
The current week will see both groups renting the air from platforms in Philadelphia, where the former marine general has "a bone to pick with the thugs who hired him as a cop to do a job and then fired him for doing it."

General Butler and his sponsor, with other members of the slate planned to proceed from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh where on Friday they will conclude the stumping itinerary.

CURRENT EVENTS '23 MEET AT ALMIRA HOME

Most successful as well as enjoyable was the meeting held Monday afternoon by associates of the Current Events of '23 when they gathered at the Almira Home, an annual event, for the purpose of entertaining the ladies who reside there.

The first part of the afternoon was devoted to the regular business session with Mrs. C. W. Mayberry, president, presiding. A report was given by Mrs. Mayberry, stating that during the past year 1600 towels had been made and sold, the proceeds which went to benefit the work of the blind. Miss Mary Moorhead is now working on her thirty-sixth rug.

Mrs. Harry Marshall, Sr., chairman of the Lawrence County Home department made a report.

The program then opened with greetings being given to the ladies of the home, by Mrs. D. T. McConahy in behalf of those assembled, numbering 71. Miss Kathryn Newberry, a talented musician, gave two selections "Annie Laurie" and "When You And I Were Young Maggie" with her mother, Mrs. M. R. Newberry, accompanying. Mrs. E. D. Porter entertained the group with a novel reading "One Wife's Query." Miss Lavina McConahy chose as her numbers "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and "Roamin' In The Gloamin'" with Miss Newberry playing her accompaniment. Mrs. W. H. Shipley, gave two readings one by Longfellow and the other by John Greenleaf Whittier which was the concluding feature.

Dainty refreshments were then served by those in charge, marking the close of a memorable afternoon. The next regular meeting of the members will occur on Monday, May 2 with Mrs. Porter, 1617 Highland avenue as hostess.

One secret of getting ahead

You need good health to succeed. Many a man has seen his chances go because he was too sick to keep pace with competition. Often his poor health was due to constipation.

This ailment frequently causes headaches, loss of energy, sleeplessness. It takes the "punch" out of your day's work.

Try eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Science shows this delicious cereal supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. How much safer than using pills and drugs—so often habit-forming.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will correct most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

In the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

GARDENING AS RELIEF MOVE

LAWRENCE county commissioners and the head of the welfare department, who have been confronted with a gigantic task of taking care of the relief of the needy during the past winter, are taking a census of all applicants for aid at the present time, to determine if they are planning to do anything to aid themselves this summer. They are inquiring if those dependent upon the charity of the county at the present time are planning to garden, and raise foodstuffs for themselves.

All of which is a move that is certainly to be commended. Last summer there was a lot of gardening of this nature, and this summer there should be a great increase. With seeds provided, and with many plots of ground available, it should be the aim of every person who can aid the situation by raising some foodstuffs to set about the task at once.

There are many of those who are being aided by the county now, who will conscientiously make an effort to aid themselves this summer, by intensive gardening. There are others who are receiving the aid of the county, who will make scant effort to aid themselves. It was the situation last summer and there will probably be no change this year.

If some plan could be devised that would affect the proportion that refuses to do anything to aid themselves, it would no doubt be gladly welcomed by the county commissioners.

MODERNIZING THE OLD COOLIDGE HOMESTEAD

Many a person will give a sigh of regret on reading that the old Coolidge homestead in Plymouth is to be modernized for the benefit of the former president and his wife. The saddest part of all, to those who are incurably sentimental, is the announcement that workmen have begun the task of wiring the house to prepare for the installation of a small electric power plant. Everybody will recall that nine years ago Calvin Coolidge took the oath of office in the sitting room of the hundred-year-old house when the only light was that furnished by the glow of kerosene lamps. What a scene that must have been when Squire Coolidge, adjusting his glasses, swore in his son as President of the United States! Fortunately it has been preserved for history by an oil painting.

Yet the mere fact that the former president is having these changes made is proof that he is not devoid of sentiment. He wants to make the old homestead his summer home. By extensive repairs and improvements, including two additional bedrooms, a bathroom and a library, it will contain the facilities which will enable him to make long stays in a house that must be filled with fond memories for him.

AFRICA CIVILIZED

Announcement has come from a representative of the South African Union that Africa is no longer a wild continent, but that it is quite as civilized and modern as Europe or the United States. He says that iron and steel production there has increased and informs that symphony orchestras have replaced the beating drums of native tribes.

Doubtless this is all true. Men who have visited the so-called dark continent in the interest of science have, during the past 10 years, urged sanctuaries for preserving species of animals fast disappearing from Africa.

This is somewhat disheartening, however, to those who like to believe that adventure still exists in the far-off places. And what about the youngsters? Most of them have already discovered that cowboys are to be found only in wild west shows or rodeos; that Indians "in the flesh" are located only on reservations dotted with filling stations or soft-drink stands, and that pirates disappeared 100 years ago. And heaven forbid the modern racketeer taking the place of any of these as the "spirit of adventure."

Now, we are informed, there is to be no Africa with its impenetrable jungles, its roaring lions, its thundering herds of elephants, its cannibals. There's still the circus, of course, and jungle pictures. But there is a difference.

Yes, it is disheartening to hear that Africa has gone modern and civilized.

CHIEF JUSTICE HUGHES AT SEVENTY

Young is not served on the Supreme Bench of the United States. In the very nature of things the distinction of a place on that tribunal is seldom obtained until a good many years have passed. Justice Holmes was an unusual example of brilliant service in extreme old age. The Chief Justice, who was seventy last week, is still at the height of his powers, and most of his colleagues approach him in age. Yet we hear nothing of coming retirements.

Mr. Hughes has had a distinguished career in many respects. Though he missed being President of the United States by the narrowest of margins, the Chief Justiceship may well be regarded as ample consolation for his disappointment. It is a position next in influence only to the Presidency, and it is not subject to the exigencies of politics. It is no secret that Mr. Taft felt much happier there than in the White House. Mr. Hughes's return to the Court after his resignation as Associate Justice to accept the nomination to the Presidency was but a little less unusual than Mr. Taft's occupation of the Chief Justiceship after he had been President. In the meantime he had been Secretary of State and Justice of the World Court.

Few public careers have been better rounded or more useful. The legal ability of our present Chief Justice is beyond dispute; and he has not fulfilled the predictions of those who opposed him on the ground that he was "reactionary." It may be doubted if there is a broader-minded member of the Court. His birthday offers a fit occasion to recognize his superlative fitness for his great post.

For genuine obscurity, suppose there were a vice-presidency of Italy.

A go-getter is a man who walks seven blocks to the place where he parked the car.

Alas! It is impossible to tell at matriculation whether he has a good batting eye.

The happiest person is one that hasn't anything to scold about except feminine styles.

The hard part of religion to understand is why it makes people so mad at one another.

All Of Us

Outburst of a Man
Who Was Criticized
And Didn't Like It

By MARSHALL MASLIN
So you think I shouldn't mind being criticized? You think I should take criticism and smile and pretend that I like it. That's what you think, is it?

Well, I can't do it and I'm not going to do it. Some people say they like criticism. They say it's good for them. It gives them a chance to see what other people think of them, shows them the way to healthy reform of their bad habits.

Liar! Nobody likes to be criticized.

But the trouble with you is that you told me the truth. I could have stood it if you had made a mistake, if you had picked out something that wasn't true to criticize. Then I could have felt "hurt" because you knew me so little that you could think that of me. I could have defended myself—at length—with many words; explained just how you were blind and utterly mistaken—made you unhappy.

But you didn't do that. With the keen eye of my own conscience, you looked at me and saw me as I am. You ripped aside my little pretenses, my awkward efforts, my vain hypocrisies, and told me the truth.

It was a ghastly thing to do, to let me know that somebody else would see me as I am. It left me stripped, defenseless, stammering. And you did it.

Don't tell me it was a friendly act. Perhaps it was, but I don't like to admit it.

Hundreds of times I've said: "Tell me the truth. Be frank with me." But why didn't you have sense enough to know that I didn't mean that? Nobody does, when he says such things.

But there were you and you criticized me fairly. Maybe you were grumpy, perhaps you got out of the wrong side of the bed this morning and wanted to revenge your own crankiness on your friend. So you picked on me . . . and told me the truth. There you were and here I am . . . mad and upset and a d dshamed of myself.

Boasting all these years that I was strong enough to stand a little honest criticism—and the first time I get it I break down and yowl like a baby.

Well, just remember me the next time you feel like blurring out the truth to a friend.

"I just congratulated Dr. Brown on marrying one of his patients, and he seemed quite annoyed. It said 'That isn't Dr. Brown, you idiot. That's Doctor Smith, the lunacy expert.'"

Two Irishmen who had not seen each other for a long time, met at a fair.
O'Brien—Sure, it's married I am and I have got a fine, healthy boy, which the neighbors say is the very picture of me.

The editor of a poultry journal received a letter from a woman reader. It read: "How long should a hen remain on 't' eggs?"

The editor replied: "Three weeks for chickens and four weeks for ducks."
Three weeks passed, and the editor again received a letter from the reader: "Thank you very much for your kind advice," it read. "The hen remained on the eggs for three weeks and there were no chickens hatched, and as I did not care for ducks, I took her off the nest and sold the eggs."

Passenger: "Why are we late?"
Porter: "Well, sah, de train in front is behind, and we was behind before besides."

Two Irishmen were peering through a display window at a collection of diamonds. One said to the other: "Mike how would you like to have your pick in there?"
"Begorra," said Mike, "I would rather have me shovel."

Europe's Needs Proclaimed
As Danube Conference Fails

Public Believes Some Agreement Must Be Reached Eventually, Though Perpetual Rivalries Are Seen To Stand In Pathway

Old rivalries in Europe are seen to be the chief cause of disagreement, as the Danubian conference in London fails to accomplish anything in the direction of progress. Comment in this country, however, emphasizes the need of some future consolidation of interests because of intolerable conditions that must be eliminated.

An international conference, wherever held and for whatever reason, thinks the WALL STREET JOURNAL, "must be understood to be only an innocent game of chess, with no stakes. This Danubian conference followed the form now prescribed in advance for such great powers attending a talk-fest to report that he made a concession."

The whole situation is described by the ST. JOSEPH GAZETTE with the statement of the conflicting interests: "The French plan for an economic federation among the Danubian states—Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and Rumania—originally ignored Germany, but looked to Great Britain and Italy for support. Great Britain brought Germany into the London parley, well knowing that the scheme had no chance of success unless Germany, the largest single trader with the 'Little Five' and the chief balancers, was included. The hope is fading although the ravages of tariff wars in southeastern Europe continue unabated. The French want to keep the peace treaties intact and would like to re-establish the entente. The British would like to reconstitute the old balance of power, with themselves as the chief balancers. The Germans want the treaties revised and the way cleared for the reconstitution of Middle Europe. Italy wants the treaties revised that she may expand. And so every project, no matter how local and pressing it may be, is swamped between these irreconcilable aims."

"One remembers," says the BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD, "the truculent objection registered by France when the German-Austrian customs union was broached. Here were two peoples closely allied in speech and blood who were to pool their economic hopes and resources. But Paris said 'No' and had its way." The Age Herald adds: "Now France urges its own brand of economic union, in which Austria is included. In short, Berlin now has confirmed its suspicions as to the Gallic interest in Austria. Having the money which France is now trying to lure the Austrians into a band against Germany. In any case, if kept on the outside, the Germans would gain nothing from the Danubian union. Therefore, they oppose it. For the same reason of exclusion, Italy declines to approve the enterprise. Under such circumstances the London conference was bound to fail."

"The inevitable facing of realities was only postponed at London," declares the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, assuming that collapse of the conference "indicates clearly that political and economic rivalries among the post-war settlements still predominate in Europe." The Daily News continues: "Its failure must be regarded as a discouraging omen. It is true that on the eve of the conference France reached some sort of understanding with Great Britain regarding a Danubian policy, but that bridging of an old chasm merely strengthened the ties between Italy and Germany as opponents of any measure that might extend French influence in central Europe. Still, if Austria and Hungary are to obtain desperately needed loans, France, in all probability, must advance them, and the French are as realistic in lending money as they are in governing."

"The failure to agree is not so reprehensible as it might be if the issue were simpler," in the judgment of the SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) REPUBLICAN, while the OAKLAND TRIBUNE points out that "there cannot be any economic coalition of the Danube countries without the permission of the leading powers, and that permission it would appear, is not to be extended without a great deal of deliberation." That paper feels that "the hope—and it is not offered as a large one—is that continued negotiations through the League Council at Geneva may advance the cause."

"The COLUMBIA (S. C.) STATE holds that such a union of the Danubian states as is proposed 'should help tremendously' in the free interchange of products and in the reciprocal aid of one another; that it 'could be a great help also to the rest of Europe.'

"If in no other way than by lifting the immense burdens that now crush her."

"It is certain" in the opinion of the HAMILTON (ONT.) SPECTATOR, "that the tariff barriers between the various Danubian states will be considerably lowered. Some go so far as to predict that a customs union in central Europe might eventually develop, so as to include France, Germany and Italy, and

THE AMERICAN IN YUCATAN
When I was down in Yucatan I met an old American Whose hair about the temples showed a touch of silver gray;
And glad was I to see his face in such a far off foreign place
And glad was I to meet a man who had "hello" to say.

The boys had brought him out from shore at 30 miles an hour or more.
And he was wet from head to foot.
The boat had sprayed the sea.
Said he, "The Spanish Main is not the Hudson River by a lot!"
A statement made in English which surprised and startled me.

I'd thought to hear a foreign tongue, but when a speech like that was sprung.
I grabbed his hand and said to him, "How long have you been here?"

"Oh, I came down a youth," said he, "to serve a steamship company.
I've often thought I'd pull away, but now I won't, I fear."

"When times were good I'd plan to go back home to all the folks I know.
I thought I'd like to see them all who knew me as a kid.
But every time there came a ship I was too busy for the trip.
I often longed to get away, but somehow never did."

"And now the long depression's on, the chance for getting home is gone.
The job I need for food and drink has got me anchored here."
And when we turned for home again, I saw him there among the men.

Upon the wharf, and I am sure he wiped away a tear!

SYMPATHY SEEKERS
With so many helpful and interesting worthwhile things to think about, why waste so much time thinking about yourself?

When the breadth of your vision, the extent of your thoughts are surrounded by that little sphere within yourself you are sure to become narrow-minded and far from generous and lovable.

There is no chance for expansion, no opportunity, nor incentive to become big, broad and companionable while you are wrapped in a cloak of self-thought.

Usually this is a forerunner of self pity.
When this latter stage is reached there is not much in life that seems worthwhile.

There is none so bothersome as the one who is continually "down on his luck" and forever seeking sympathy.

People are torn enough by those who really need help and sympathy. The breaking point is reached when a person in fairly good health enjoying an income that meets curtailed expenses, makes a plea for sympathy.

Get away from yourself—look upon your troubles as the lot of humans.
Quit grumbling, plug along head up, shoulders squared and a mouth shut so far as talking about ill fortune is concerned.

Grapefruit, Soda Treatment For Cold Cited By Clendening

Physicians Explain Theory Of Neutralizing Acid Medium In Which Influenza Thrives, Making System Alkaline

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Every time it is stated in this column that there is no certain drug, serum or treatment that will certainly prevent colds, a flood of letters is received in protest. Each of these relates a method of prevention. Some of the methods are worse than having the cold, but the latest is at least harmless and pleasant. If it prevents colds, we will be very glad to hear it, and it is published because this department does not wish to appear to be in the position of obstructing any information which will be helpful.

"The Manufacturers' Record" asked Dr. William M. Mackenzie, retired physician, to explain how grapefruit juice is used in the cure of colds and influenza. Dr. Mackenzie claims a remarkable record for this remedy, and his explanation follows: "Investigation showed that influenza thrived and became virulent in an acid medium, and was inhibited by an alkaline one. If true—a treatment was simple and plain, viz: to render the system of its victim alkaline. How? Many means were available, yet the simplest and most universally prevalent were citrus fruits and baking soda. 'Fearfully I tried grapefruit juice and soda in my next case of influenza, a virulent one complicated with pneumonia. Results were startling—symptoms mitigated in a few hours, hemorrhage (severe) stopped immediately, recovery was rapid. 'Being called into the United States public health service, I healed 502 cases of the most severe types within 60 days without a single fatality; this in spite of the fact that double pneumonia, violent hemorrhage, cerebral infections, intestinal inflammation, inadequate care, extreme poverty were among the things with which it was necessary to contend. The same treatment tried by other physicians and myself in innumerable cases since that time has given the same happy results. 'Following is the treatment in detail: At the first sign of 'cold' or influenza, all food is stopped but plenty of cool, pure water is given throughout the course of the disease. Food in an inflamed alimentary canal is worse than useless, will not digest and taxes the flagging heart in an effort to get rid of it. No one will starve or need food for a few days. The juice from five to 15 grapefruits is given daily, divided in portions every four hours or oftener. In between the juice portions, not with them, sodium bicarbonate is given, a teaspoonful in a glass of water, then a quarter teaspoonful every four hours or oftener until symptoms are practically gone. 'Orange juice and lemon juice may be used instead of grapefruit, but are not so satisfactory. Orange juice is sweet and tends to disturb the victim's digestion, lemon juice is too sour to be used in quantities. Grapefruit juice alone will achieve results, but the soda hastens alkalinity. Citrus fruits taste acid, but citric acid makes the system alkaline. Grapefruit juice and soda will usually cure an ordinary cold in from 36 to 48 hours, relieve bronchitis, often prevent or mitigate pneumonia. 'In influenza, grapefruit juice and water attend to all the elimination necessary in a fasting patient.'"

Aimee Peeved By Humorous Picture

Coast Artist Paints Humorous Picture Called "Apparition Over Los Angeles"

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, April 19.—A war of words between art critics and heads of Angeles Temple loomed today over a painting "Apparition Over Los Angeles," which Barse Miller, the artist, declared he had painted "in a humorous mood." The picture portrayed Angeles Temple beneath clouds resembling money bags. Figures resembling Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson-Hutton, the evangelist, of her estranged mother, Mrs. Minnie (Ma) Kennedy-Hudson, and of a Venetian Venus and a man with a straw hat, float zephyr-like through the "financial clouds." "I'm too busy to pay any attention to it," said Aimee, but her new husband, David Hutton, Temple choir singer, declared "it's the work of a lunatic." The picture won a prize as "the best interpretation of the Los Angeles scene," and was hung in the Los Angeles Museum where thousands of curious persons view it before Dr. William A. Bryan, Museum director, removed it as "too controversial." Boris Lobet-Lorski, famed sculptor, issued an invitation to exhibit the painting in the Salon D'Automne in Paris in October. "We won't accept the invitation," Hutton said. "We won't have time to accept the invitation," said Aimee, "because we're leaving for Kansas City to conduct revival services. The picture is untrue and in poor taste."

NEW SHREDDED BISCUIT "DOUBLE TOASTED"

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit Introduce Many Improvements

Local grocers say that women are delighted with the extra crispness of the new Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit. It is toasted on both top and bottom—not just one side.

The biscuit is "pressure-cooked" by a special process that retains the full food value of the whole wheat. This process likewise produces a delightful, tasty flavor and makes the biscuit easier to digest.

Another improvement Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits offer is a new and more convenient size. Two biscuits just fit the cereal bowl without crumbling. And you get 15 to the package instead of the usual dozen.

As evidence of the high food value of the Kellogg biscuit, the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia certifies every package. Served with hot or cold milk or cream, these tempting biscuits bring a well-balanced variety of healthful food elements to any meal.

Local stores are featuring the new Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit. Ask your grocer about it. You can identify this improved cereal by the name, Kellogg's, and the familiar red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Varicose Ulcers

After cleansing the surface with warm water, apply emerald oil. To the affected part apply a piece of clean gauze soaked in the oil. Over it put a layer of mutton tallow to hold the gauze in place, and cover with a bandage. Change the dressing two or three times a day. Wear the bandage continuously until the repair process is established and the broken surface is replaced by healthy skin. Emerald Oil is antiseptic and very soothing.

You can get Moore's Emerald Oil at Eckerd's Cut Rate or any drug store, with a guarantee or relief or money back.

Lux underthings and stockings after every wearing. It takes only 4 minutes, or less.

AVOID OFFENDING . . . Underthings absorb perspiration odor—protect daintiness this easy 4-minute way:

Wash this 4-minute way. One tablespoon of Lux does one day's undies . . . stockings, too! Use lukewarm water—Lux dissolves instantly in it. Squeeze suds through, rinse twice.
Wash after each wearing, for perspiration left in silk fades colors and rots threads. Lux removes perspiration acids and odors completely.

Never rub dainty lingerie with cake soap. Rubbing tends to streak and wear out silk.

Avoid ordinary soaps—cakes, powders, chips. These often contain harmful alkali which weakens threads, fades color. Lux has no harmful alkali. Anything safe in water alone is safe in Lux.

Use Lux for dishes—it gives your hands beauty care for only 1/4 day.

TWO CASES ENDED IN SUPERIOR COURT

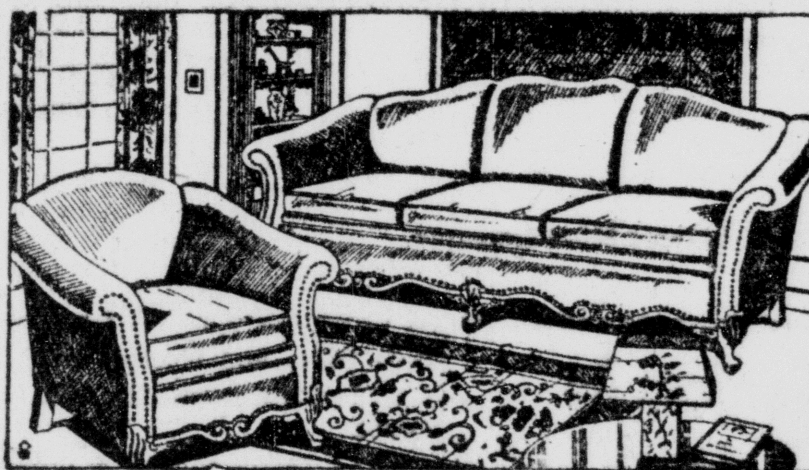

Two cases which had been taken to the superior court from Lawrence county were non prossed when court convened at Pittsburgh Monday. They were the cases of Paul and Emma Albino, growing out of divorce proceedings, and the City of New Castle against Catherine Young. This was a case growing out of a municipal lien, in which the city lost out. Both cases were recently settled, which was the reason that the non pros was granted.

Knight Templars' Installation Occurs Friday; Aides Are Named

With the appointment of all the committees for the coming visitation of the grand commander of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, together with his official staff next Friday in the Scottish Rite Cathedral on Lincoln avenue, the affair takes on the appearance of one of the largest Masonic gatherings in New Castle within recent years.

R. E. Sir Clyde P. Love and his wife, of Harrisburg, Pa., and the other members of his staff will arrive in the city some time Friday afternoon and at 6:00 will be the guests of Sir Knights of Lawrence Commandery of New Castle and their ladies. This dinner will be for all the Sir Knights of the Sixth division and their ladies, and a large number are expected to be present from the commanderies in Sharon, Beaver Valley, Greenville and Butler and other surrounding cities. Reservations for this dinner close on Wednesday and tickets can be secured from nearly every member of the various committees. The dinner will be served in the Cathedral dining room.

Following the dinner all will go to the Asylum of the Commandery in the Cathedral, where the formal reception of Grand Commander R. E. Sir Clyde P. Love and the other guests of the evening, the newly elected officers of Lawrence Commandery No. 62, Knights Templar will be publicly installed with the inspiring and dignified installation service of the grand commandery of Pennsylvania. This installation service will be open to all of the Masonic fraternity and their ladies and a large crowd is expected. In order not to interfere with the prompt service, it is asked that all be in the asylum sharply at 8 p. m. Music for this service will be furnished by the vested chorus choir of the First Methodist church of this city. For this installation service, Commander Love will be assisted by a full Grand Commandery Staff of officers, and a most impressive ceremonial is being anticipated by all of the members of Lawrence commandery.

At the close of the installation service, Lawrence Commandery members will be hosts to all of the Sir Knights and Masons together with their ladies at a Knight Templar ball in the Cathedral ball room. Always numbered among the most brilliant events of any social season, this Knight Templar ball gives promise to far surpass any of the past because of the presence of so many visiting Sir Knights and ladies from other cities and of the large number of Masons of New Castle and their ladies who will also be present. One of the most colorful balls of the year will be witnessed, for with the gorgeous uniforms of the Sir Knights and evening dresses of their ladies moving gracefully over the dancing floor, color will not be lacking at any time.

For those who do not care to dance, cards will be provided in the West Lodge room of the Cathedral under the direction of a competent committee. Both bridge and five hundred tables will be arranged for and a large number are expected to join in this form of entertainment.

To complete final arrangements, a meeting of each committee is called for Wednesday evening of this week in the commandery rooms. At this time all plans will be gone over to make sure that nothing will be left undone to make this visit of the grand commander one of the outstanding Masonic events in New Castle's fraternal history.

Urge Gardens As Means Of Relief

County Poor Authorities Stress Necessity For Raising Vegetables

County Welfare Officer M. B. Hogue and the county commissioners are endeavoring to impress upon applicants for county aid the necessity for making gardens this spring.

If the applicant does not have a plot of ground of his own, he is instructed to make effort to secure one.

Last year one of the biggest garden projects in the county was successfully operated at Bessemer. A large tract of land, east of the borough was laid out in sections, each family being given a plot. The ground was good and the crops fine. This garden went a long way toward helping out a large number of Bessemer people. They expect to farm the same plot this year, and other plots are being secured.

Efforts are also being made to get all the available land in the vicinity of Hillsville, where there has been much unemployment during the past winter. In Ellwood City and vicinity every available plot of ground is to be worked.

In the townships surrounding New Castle there is a large amount of land that can be secured. Garden plots will help out greatly during the summer and the surplus can be canned for next winter.

Mrs. Lillie Bailey will serve the meals Tuesday and give out the bread. There are white and colored workers in the army and much good has been accomplished during the past few months in alleviating hunger and need.

If evolution really develops a race to survive adversity, the next generation of pedestrians shouldn't need stairways.

In the case of the State Auto Sales company against John Paul, which was tried before Judge James A. Chambers, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $24.65. The case was one growing out of a claim for $51 on an auto repair bill.

Passover Feast At Temple Israel

Seder Feasts Will Be Celebrated In Jewish Homes Of City During The Week

Temple Israel, Highland and Moody avenues, will conduct special services in celebration of the Festival of Passover (Pesach) on Wednesday evening, April 20, at 6:15 p. m., and on Thursday morning, April 21, at 10:30 a. m. The choir will take part in the evening service, and will render the prayers in the traditional Pesach melodies. There will be no sermons at either of these services.

A number of Temple Israel members will entertain students from Westminster College and State Teachers College of Slippery Rock at the Seder Feast in their homes. This is in keeping with the tradition that no Jew or Jewess who is away from his or her own home on this festival occasion is to be left without a place to celebrate the Exodus from Egypt.

Passover—The Feast Of Freedom

Wednesday evening, April 20, will find the home ceremony of the Seder inaugurating the biblically-ordained, seven-day festival of Passover for Jews everywhere.

The Passover festival is commemorative of the departure of the Jews from Egypt about thirty-one centuries ago. Under the leadership of Moses the Exodus was hurried, and housewives took with them their dough as yet unleavened. It is this tradition which gives to the Passover the name Feast of Unleavened Bread (Matzo), and accounts for the fact that Jews eat no leaven during the holiday.

The Seder is the beautiful religious service and dinner in the home. Here the father recounts the story of the Exodus, and every Jew is to imagine that he himself was present at the departure from Egypt.

With the second day of Passover Jews begin to count the Omer (measure of barley). This continues for forty-nine days. At the end of these seven weeks is celebrated the Pentecost, or Feast of Weeks (Shavuoth). The outstanding significance of the Passover is the prophetic sincerity of the principle of freedom. No nation can hold another in slavery, nor may one group oppress another in servitude, political or economic.

Today, slavery of all kinds finds Judaism loud in protest—true to the spirit of the Passover.

SUIT FOR BILL

The Pittsburgh Stove and Range Company has filed a suit at the prothonotary's office against Frank Barczyk of Volant to collect a bill of $326.99 alleged to be due for merchandise furnished by the plaintiff to the defendant.

FROM Xanthi and Cavalla . . . Smyrna and Samsoun . . . the finest Turkish tobaccos travel 4,000 miles to add flavor and fragrance to CHESTERFIELD.

4000 miles

for better taste

CIGARETTE smokers owe a lot to Turkish tobacco, for it was cigarettes made out of Turkish tobacco that first became the vogue in this country.

Then it was found that a blend of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos was better than either kind of tobacco straight. It takes just the right amount of the right kind of Turkish tobacco to give a cigarette better taste. For Turkish tobacco is to cigarettes what seasoning is to food—the spice—the sauce. You want enough but not too much.

There is just enough Turkish in CHESTERFIELDS to give them a better flavor, a more pleasing aroma; to make them taste better.

Turkish tobacco must pay an import duty of 35c a pound; but cost doesn't count when it comes to making CHESTERFIELD the best cigarette that science and money can produce.

ATTEMPTED JAIL BREAK AT CAMDEN IS FRUSTRATED

Ten Injured In Attempted Break At Camden Jail

Three Philadelphia Desperados Cause Injury To Ten In Effort To Escape

RIOT SQUAD CALLED OUT

Prisoners Secure Wooden Clubs And Fell Mates And Guards Alike

(International News Service) CAMDEN, N. J., Apr. 19.—Ten men lay in a hospital here today suffering injuries received when three Philadelphia desperados, thwarted in a daring break for freedom, fought with guards and fellow prisoners in the Camden County jail.

The abortive jailbreak attempt was engineered by Patrick Costano, Henry Schwartz and Michael Quinn, all of Philadelphia. While the evening meal was in progress, Quinn suddenly seized a milk pitcher and smashed it into the face of Walter Taylor, captain of the guards.

His two mates armed themselves with roughly fashioned clubs, bludgeoned Taylor into unconsciousness and rifled his pockets for the jail keys.

Finally Subdued As the three men wheeled about to make a dash for the gates, Deputy Warden John Feitz rushed into the dining room with a tear gas gun.

The riot fumes sent the would-be jailbreakers, gasping and choking, back into the room, enraged, they belabored convicts and keepers indiscriminately with the heavy clubs. They were not subdued until a riot squad was summoned from Camden police headquarters.

The writers of that once popular song, "There's No North Nor South Today," could not have foreseen the contract bridge epidemic from which the country is now suffering.—The Newark Evening News.

Judge Chambers Is Trying Murder Case

Mike Mamula, Alleged Slayer Of Charles McFarland, Bank Cashier On Trial

Judge James A. Chambers is holding criminal court in Pittsburgh this week. The case on trial before him at present is that of the Commonwealth against Mike Mamula, 32, of Youngstown, O., who is charged with the murder of Charles McFarland, 33, cashier of the Allegheny Trust Company at Verona. The murder occurred during a holdup which occurred on December 6, 1930.

Mamula is the second of two men to be tried on a charge of murder. His accomplice, Matt Hadok, 34, was convicted last week of murder in the first degree, with imprisonment. A motion for a new trial is pending in his case.

After the robbery the two men are alleged to have escaped with $1000. They were arrested early this year at Rankin, Pa.

New Talbot Check In County Coiffers

Second Relief Bill Payment Arrives Here Today; Aids Local Poor

County commissioners today were in receipt of the second Talbot relief bill check, mailed yesterday out of the state's welfare department office at Harrisburg. It amounted to $21,168.54.

Lawrence county's two checks now have placed $31,668.54 in the funds of the county poor district, while additional checks will arrive later.

'Bluff And Bluster' Declares Dr. Bennett; Nay! Says Tom Dickey

"Our friend, Mr. Aikens, I see, was rather full of bluff and bluster yesterday," said Dr. Gershon S. Bennett, one of the ministerial representatives in the minister-lawyer debate of next Friday evening. "Why he even suggested we were runner in debate than some things he seems to know more about than we do, namely, a thing."

But he'll find that in debate of such a subject as this that he and his colleagues must shoot straight and not twist and turn the facts, which might occur in a legal controversy, because the public is sitting as judge and wants the facts. "We give him and his co-workers fair warning to be careful what they say about the women, or they won't be able to go home after it's over. And let him remember that we believe women are just as intelligent as men and will be ready to prove it Friday night."

Dr. Bennett's statement leaves no doubt in the mind of any interested person that the debate Friday night on "Should the 19th Amendment Remain a Permanent Part of the Constitution?" while planned as a means of providing funds for the needy of the city and designed to entertain those aiding the cause, will be a spirited contest for supremacy between two of the best known professional groups of our fair city.

The Hon. Charles B. Mayne is intensely interested in the argument and has consented to preside and keep the war of words within bounds. Above all, he hopes that the public interest will be such as to net the mayor's relief committee a fine sum of money to help the needy.

There has been a wide distribution of tickets. The churches are backing their representatives to the limit in the effort to pack the high school. It is a worthy cause and the cost is small.

The ministers won 22 years ago from the lawyers and believe that everything is set for another victory. However, Thomas W. Dickey, Esq., believes otherwise, and says:

"I consider the question for debate to be a very serious governmental problem. It is a problem which has to do with the future. We have tried both plans, men managing the government and men and women together managing the government. We are now ready to make choice."

"There can be no logical argument on the other side of this debate. Of course, ministers may still talk. Abe Martin, the great modern philosopher, recently stated in the New Castle News:

"Educated men can talk intelligently on a subject they don't know anything about, 'cause they ain't hampered by any facts."

Heap Big Wigwag

Standing on one of New York's towering skyscrapers, Big Chief Lone Pine, full-blooded Indian, is shown as he saluted the "Big Chief" of all man-made structures—the Empire State Building. The Indian chief is one of the distinguished redskin visitors to an exposition glorifying the wide-open spaces in the heart of the world's biggest city.

SMALL GRASS FIRE
Firemen were summoned to a field on the east side of the 1700 block along Highland avenue Monday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire. Firemen beat out the flames with brooms.

KIND
Client: "Have you told the gentleman that I am musical? That I play five instruments?"
Matrimonial Agent: "No, I am breaking it gently to him."

It isn't fair to say that America was stolen from the Indians. For every state they surrendered, they got a set of nice beads or a shot of gin.

School Costs Cut Total Of $908,000

Salaries Reduced And Term Is Shortened At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 19.—A $908,000 economy program involving a 10 per cent cut in salaries of teachers as well as reducing the school term, was adopted last night by the board of education to meet the $892,951 deficit in the 1932 budget. The board decided to close the present term June 10 instead of June 17 as originally intended.

Besides reducing teaching salaries, the board also abandoned the automatic increase given annually and the bonus for janitors. These salary reductions effect a saving of $140,772. The cuts will take effect at the close of the present school term. The pupil-teacher load is being increased to save about $120,000. Plans for a capital outlay of $650,000 have been dropped. The board also eliminated kindergarten and reduced expenditures. Although last night's action balances the budget, it is virtually certain that another $500,000 must be lopped off somewhere to make up for the expected delinquency in taxes.

Uncover Body In Cleaning Out Dam

BUTLER, Pa., April 19.—The body of an unidentified man, about 40 years old, was found Monday in the dam of the American Rolling Mill company, Connoquenessing creek. Indications were that the body had been in the water for several months.

A wallet on the body contained a pass with the words, "Verona Ferry, Fred Ecker," and was dated as usable between July 23 and August 5, 1931. A razor set and several other small articles were found in the man's clothing.

The dam at the steel plant had been drained Sunday, and the body with the feet caught in sand which had been washed in, was found by Nick Prokocchak of Lyndora.

INJURIES FATAL TO AMITY RESIDENT

GROVE CITY, April 19.—U. Grant Sterrett, aged 67, a resident of Amity, Mercer county, died Sunday in a Grove City hospital following injuries sustained when he attempted to crank his car while it was in gear.

Mr. Sterrett was dragged a number of feet before his son rescued him. He sustained a fractured hip and severe bruises. He was brought to the hospital and the fracture reduced, but a blood clot resulted in his death.

Surviving are his widow, a son Frank, and three daughters, Mrs. Norman Eakin of Grove City, Mrs. Howard Shull of Harrisville and Mrs. Elton Martin of Clintonville.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

LARGE CROWDS AT NUMBER TWO MINE

If such large crowds of people from No. Two Mine continue to attend the Sunday evening services conducted there weekly by a group of people from the Christian and Missionary Alliance church of New Castle, a larger meeting place will have to be secured.

The services have been led by Harry Mack, Miss Marguerite Mack and Lindsey Mack of Adams street and Joe Master of Stanton avenue. They have taken place in a little mission building at the mining town.

Good Hurling In Big League

Pitching Flops Of Other Years Turn In Sensational Games

KOLP, BETTS AND PHELPH IN SHAPE

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 19.—The pitching flops of yesterday are the heroes of today in the major leagues. The erstwhile failures who hit the comeback trail yesterday were Babe Phelps, Brooklyn man-mountain; Huck Betts, of the Boston Braves; and Ray Kolp, veteran of the Cincinnati Reds. The stock of each club has been boosted by this aid from an unexpected quarter.

Phelps In Shape
Brooklyn fans fainted from the shock of Phelps, who appeared in 28 ball games last year but finished only three, reverted to the form he flashed in his freshman year in 1930 and held the Phillies to six hits, winning 8 to 0. Led by Glenn Wright, Hack Wilson and Grandpa George Kelly, the Dodgers combed four Quaker pitchers for twelve hits, concentrating their attack in the fourth inning when they scored five runs.

Betts, who once toiled with the Phillies, was reported to have had his salary arm shot full of holes in a hunting accident last winter. Yesterday it appeared that the Giants' bats were shot full of holes as Huck handed the New Yorkers their fourth defeat, 7 to 1. Sam Gibson, bought from San Francisco by the Giants for $15,000, was given a merry shelling.

Root Impressive
Kolp, who won only four games for Cincinnati last year, blanked Pittsburgh, 5 to 0, with the aid of some wicked walling by Babe Herman, former Clown Prince of Brooklyn. Herman hit a single, a double and his first homer and drove in four runs.

Several old-time hurlers also were "hot." Charley Root held the St. Louis Cardinals to four hits, winning 3 to 1 and pitching the Cubs in first place in the National league scramble. The champion Cards have dropped four straight, equaling their longest losing streak last year.

Wes Ferrell, Cleveland's iron man, chalked up his second win of the year by capturing a 2 to 1 duel from Vic Frasier of the White Sox, the butter-finger Sox committed six errors.

Senators Win
Washington finally beat the Athletics, 15 to 7, and climbed into a tie with Detroit and the Yankees for first place in the American league. Manish West and Judge of the Senators hit for the circuit, while Jimmy Fox's fourth four-bagger of the season put him in the lead in the home run derby.

Detroit smothered the St. Louis Browns, 14 to 7, in a burlesque affair featured by 28 hits and nine errors. Wyatt, Detroit hurler, chalked up his second victory of the season.

The Yanks and Red Sox did not play in league games.

DELEGATE TO SYNOD
Fred Pfeffer of Evans City, who was elected commissioner to represent Butler Presbytery at the General Assembly, which convenes at Denver, Colorado, will leave for that city May 23.

Marathon Race Carded Today

Clarence De Mar, Veteran
Racer Hopes For Olympic Berth

(International News Service)
HOPKINTON, Mass., April 19.—Answering the call to the post on the most gruelling hill and dale course in the country, a pack of 250 long distance runners of the United States and Canada gathered at Lucky Rock atop a hillside here today for the noon start of the 36th annual running of the Boston Athletic Association marathon.

Along both sides of the long ribbon of asphalt road stretching 25 miles, 335 yards to the B. A. clubhouse in Boston, close to half a million spectators waited for the coming of the men and boys of the fighting heart, speed and stamina in matching strides.

The blue ribbon event in long distance racing of American amateur sports took on an added significance this year as it was the first of the official Olympic marathon at Los Angeles next summer.

Outstanding in one of the greatest fields of marathon runners ever assembled was Clarence De Mar, seven times winner of the Boston Patriot's Day classic, ready again to hit the trail.

The 44-year-old veteran, a printer-school teacher in Keene, N. H., foe of rum and exponent of clean living, hopes for an eighth win and the realization of a lifelong ambition—to win an Olympic.

Butler Makes Final Decision
And Will Play Here Week
From Friday

New Castle football fans are going to see the 1932 edition of New Castle high football team in action on Friday night, April 29, at Taggart Field, Faculty Manager Ralph H. Butler had asked for a postponement of a week of two from the original date but finally consented to play here on the 29th.

Meanwhile Taggart Field is being dressed up for the occasion.

DISCIPLINED FOR FRACTURING RULES

Because they fractured training rules John Uribe, 230 pound All-State guard and Berrie Sullivan, 215 pound center have been shunted from the New River college spring football team.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Only a few weeks remain until local baseball gets under way. The Lawrence County League has been formed and it should prove one of the fastest loops in any western Pennsylvania county. Especially gratifying this season is the return of Ellwood City, Brent, Wampum, Bessemer, Universal Sanitary, Shenango Pottery, Scarazzos and Mahoning A. C.

The Lawrence County League has been in existence for years. The roster of players has been filled with stars. The play has been fast and with conditions such as they are at present it is believed that most of the games this season will be attended by big crowds. A schedule committee has been appointed and the report will be presented to managers for approval soon.

This is the busy time of high school coaches as they are whipping the track team and football candidates into shape. Bill Klee is in charge of the track and field athletics and he reports having several good prospects. Ne-Ca-Hi will participate in the Pitt meet April 29. Phil Bridenbaugh is drilling the gridgers and the fans will have a chance to notice "Who's Who" when Ne-Ca-Hi plays Butler here, April 29. Meanwhile Ralph Gardner is making arrangements to handle a big crowd.

It is anticipated that there will be 18 teams in the Twilight Baseball League that is being organized by Tully Calazza. The managers of the teams are scheduled to convene tonight and plans for the coming season will be discussed. It is probable that a draft of the scheduled players will be presented for consideration when the managers get together.

Mrs. Edwin Vare celebrated her return to the 1932 tourney competition at Hot Springs, W. Va., by breaking the women's record for the Homestead course in the qualifying round of the Old Dominion golf championship yesterday. She turned in a 74 for the 18 holes which fractured the former record of 78 held by Helen Hicks, national champion and Diana Fishwick, former British women's champion. Mrs. Vare went out in 39 and came back in with a 35.

Foot racing enthusiasts of New Castle and in fact every place where a Pennsylvania railroad train stops or a telegraph instrument clicks will have their eyes on Boston today because Frank Jerry, New Castle, will be a participant in the eastern elimination marathon contest to represent the United States in the Olympics at Los Angeles this summer. Jerry is unattached. Among his competitors will be Clarence De Mar, the veteran. There are 259 entered in the race which will be over a course of 26 miles, 385 yards between Hopkinton and Boston A. C. clubhouse in Boston. The first American citizen to cross the finish line will be picked for the U. S. marathon team. Others will be chosen from races to be held at Baltimore and Los Angeles.

Clarence De Mar, who has won this particular event seven times in 44 years while Jerry is about 40. De Mar stands high among the favorites. Jerry is not quite so well known in the east although every race enthusiast in this section and also in sections where the Pennsylvania railroad has held meets. The victor last year was Jimmy Hennigan, age 40, and while writing about age some people are inclined to believe that De Mar and others around the 40 year mark will be among the first to finish. Some fans claim that marathoning is an "old man's game" as youngsters have rarely won the event, the exception being the victory of Johnny Miles in 1929.

FOUR DEADLOCK IN NORTH-SOUTH SHOOT

Issac Andrews, Sparansburg, S. C., former Grand American champion, Dr. Howard Kinsley, Toledo, S. H. Sharman, Salt Lake City and R. C. Coffey, Prairie City, Ia., all scored 96s to tie for first place in the introductory 100 single in the annual North-South trapshoot which started yesterday at Pinehurst. A. J. Smith, Providence, R. I., cracked down 82 to win first place in the Class 2 division.

East New Castle Team Is Formed

East New Castle Merchants baseball team has organized for the coming summer season. A business meeting was held Monday at which time plans were outlined. It is expected that Tunny White of the south side will be chosen to manage the team.

Practice sessions will be held on Wednesday and Friday nights of this week at the Shenango high

Twilight Moguls To Meet Tonight

Tully Calazza, president of the Twilight Baseball league will meet managers of the teams tonight. The coming season will be discussed. There will be 18 teams in the league. A split season will be played.

Pinchot's Extravagance

A few days ago it was announced that President Hoover had submitted to the House Economy Committee proposed legislation, which if enacted into law, will reduce the expenses of the Federal government in an estimated sum of between $300,000,000 and $400,000,000.

Most of the states of the Union, as well as municipal subdivisions, such as counties, cities, boroughs, townships and school districts, have been reducing budgets and curtailing activities, in order to relieve the taxpayers of the burden which they are called upon to bear, and which many of them cannot bear, by reason of unemployment.

It would appear to be the part of good business as well as good government, that at a time when many are unemployed and many others have difficulty in meeting their financial obligations, that the state government should adopt plans of economy of administration that would assist in relieving its citizens of the burden of taxation.

Governor Pinchot during his first term as governor coined the term "Pinchot economy", but the term is no longer in circulation, and observers of the payroll of the Commonwealth are wondering if the die from which it was struck is lost.

In any event economy is not now being put into effect in the state government, although the business conditions at the present time would seem to demand retrenchment.

The records of the state government disclose that the yearly payroll for 1931, based on salaries paid for the first half of January, 1931, just at the close of the Fisher administration, was $27,458,244.72. Based on payments made during the same period this year, the Pinchot payroll is $28,867,660.92, or an annual increase of $1,409,416.20.

Since January there have been more appointees than dismissals as disclosed by the announcements made from the Governor's office from time to time. On April 7th, just a few weeks from the primary election, the personnel changes were 91 appointees and 52 dismissals.

A very large part of this increase in payroll is due to the increase of the personnel in the Governor's office, where he has absolute control, and which has been increased almost $100,000 over his predecessor in office.

The Governor has placed in the field a slate of candidates, covering United States Senator and other state offices, members of the General Assembly, National Delegates and other party offices. He travels over the State in State-owned cars, at the expense of the Commonwealth. He came to New Castle in a car owned by the State of Pennsylvania, campaigning for his ticket.

When Governor Pinchot does these things, his administration of State Government becomes a campaign issue and gives the voters an opportunity to say whether his political power shall be extended or curtailed.

Is this large increase of the state payroll of over $1,400,000 in the public interest, or is it an attempt to build up in Pennsylvania a political machine to be used in keeping in public office the Pinchot family? Your support of his candidates will be construed as an approval of his administration.

Vote for the regular Republican candidates and express your disapproval of his extravagant administration.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Stock Market Shows Irregular Session

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 19.—The stock market drifted irregularly lower today in another dull session, with weakness again displayed by American Telephone, U. S. Steel and American Can.

Telephone broke par for the first time since 1921, while American Can sold down to the lowest price since 1927. Steel was active on the decline to a new low at 30%.

Allied Chemical and Western Union broke to new lows, while Du Pont was under pressure.

Auburn was strong, running up more than two points against the shorts.

Chesapeake & Ohio and Atchafalaya were the best performers in the rails, the former continuing to be stimulated by its favorable March earnings statement. Consolidated Gas snapped back quickly after an early reaction.

Castlewood

COMMUNITY LEAGUE MEETING
Memories of old time singing school and spelling bee were brought to mind on Monday evening when the Castlewood Community league met in regular session in the grade school building to discuss matters pertaining to the general good.
Chairman John M. Houk was in charge and the meeting was conducted with much hilarity and good will. The Castlewood orchestra opened the meeting by playing the Star Spangled Banner and Rev. S. L. Cobb offered the invocation.
Our thanks are extended to the local orchestra and also to Omar Moyer and Russel Comstock for much good music furnished during the evening. The first matter taken up was fixing of the northern boundary of our town. A delegation composed of Ellis Shaffer, Curtis Reno and Harvey Moyer reported that Energy wished to retain its old name.
The northern boundary was not definitely settled but it was tentatively agreed that Castlewood should include Baldwin, Moravia and Spring Stops. Glenn Hogue, our local school director, gave a very good report of Pennsylvania's ten-year school plan as it will affect this locality. Harry Miller offered to have signboards placed at the intersection of state route No. 388 and roads leading down into Castlewood valley. His offer was gladly accepted. It was decided that all possible would attend the concert being given by the Castlewood orchestra at the East New Castle consolidated school on April 28.
A community picnic was mentioned to be held soon. J. J. Hill and Courtney Newton have announced that free turnips will be furnished to all who will call at their farms.
It was announced that the baseball team was forming and also a junior team.
State Senator George T. Wein-gartner showed how the tax rate might be lowered and various other ways in which Lawrence county might economize.
The next meeting is scheduled for May 9 at the same place.

Play In Christian Church Scores With Big Audience Monday

ELLWOOD CITY, April 19.—A packed house witnessed the play, "The Blunders From Blue Ridge" last night in the First Christian church, and came away well pleased with the evening's excellent program.
The play was of double interest to the fine crowd. It had a large cast of 30 who performed their parts to great satisfaction, and then it was put on by the members of the Progressive and Loyal Women's classes of that church.
It was the type of play that required the best of talent. The plot was based around the Edward Blunner family from Blue Ridge, who were expected from abroad. The people of a small community, hearing that the famed family would stop in their midst, began making elaborate preparations for their reception. They were under the impression that this family was the last word in this modern age. It turned out that Mr. and Mrs. Blunner were only an old fashioned couple and the people of the town were much provoked for having made all their arrangements.

The principal parts were taken by Max Nye and Mrs. Oscar Hooker, who portrayed Judge and Mrs. Gillespie; Hildreth Welsh and Thelma Maine furnished the romance and Bud Pander and Mrs. Ruth Wiley the comedy. The play will also be repeated this evening.

Some News, Some Views, But

Of Interesting Things Around New

Trout, according to my friend Andy Dodds, are shy folks to get acquainted with. They do not respond to advances of strangers like a water spaniel or a Jersey cow, and by now a lot of the Lawrence county fishermen realize it.

Last Friday, which was the opening day of the trout season, 40 cans of state fish were taken to the Little Neshannock creek to be given temporary quarters until the disciples of Isaac Walton got a chance at them. And were the boys out on a reception committee. Fifty or 60 c. them with their lines all a-twirl.

With 40 cans of fish put into the stream it looked like a cinch for a big catch, but the trout had other ideas. Up where they had been living they were fed on ground meat, and changing over to a worm diet was like changing a fellow from caviar to slumgullion.

After sniffing at the worms dangled before their eyes, or their gills, the trout decided to wander off in search of something tastier to eat, and out of the gang gathered on the banks only about one trout was snared, and this was probably a youngster that had never been away from his mother before.

Later on those pesky trout will be glad to snap at an ordinary worm, and still later, at flies or bugs. But just before being turned into a stream, a trout is a suspicious gentleman, snooty and selective and trying to catch them then is like trying to hold a sunbeam in your hand.

This weather has the cottage germ roving around looking for places to light. Half a dozen of the regulars have begun preparing to move out to their shacks along the creek banks and a couple of weeks more will see such townships as Slippery Rock more heavily populated.

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 19.—The Rev. Dr. Samuel Elliott, local patron and friend of Westminster College, has donated $500 in cash, for the use of the department of economics and business administration. Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, President, announced.

This is not the first of Dr. Elliott's contributions to Westminster. With the addition of this sum, his gifts to the business department of Westminster alone have now reached a total of almost $11,000 in books, cash, and office equipment.

In addition to these gifts, Dr. Elliott is also the donor of the beautiful pipe organ in the college chapel. Had it not been for Dr. Elliott's interest, the study of secretarial work would not be available for the large number of students now reaping its benefits.

Hospital Aide Society

How big is a dollar? There are a great many women, men too, who have come to appraise a single dollar as a rather dimly hoped-for amount of purchasing power, unworthy of expectancy in promotion of big worthy effort.

A dollar dedicated in use in constructive endeavor of organized purposeful community charity is a symbol of faith and a sinew of accomplishment.

A dollar membership fee to the Jameson Memorial Hospital Aide Society means that a splendid work for a splendid institution will be carried on. Practically all of the linens and materials used in the Jameson hospital, are made by a group of Aid Society members, the finances being furnished each year by the women of the entire community. Join!

REFUSES RECOMMENDATION
City Solicitor Robert White has informed city council he could not recommend payment of $5.95 damages to Lin White as the result of an auto accident recently in East Washington street. White, is said, claimed that while backing his car into the curb it struck a fire plug between Mill and East streets which extends several inches into the street line.
